

Continuing Our Collective Work of Healing Through Love

Beloved souls,

As a follow-up to the Final Reminder About the Global Push for Peace in Ukraine networked on April 19, it is proposed that we carry on the collective work launched on February 19 to facilitate the emergence of Peace around the world, based on the following theme:

Wherever the mind of humans is dominated by fear, anger and the desire for vengeance that can result in war and all forms of related violence, let us together be the instruments of a dispensation of healing Love and unshakeable trust that all conflicts will eventually be resolved, enmities dissipated, and the light of Peace grow in all hearts.

This service for the highest good of all can be performed whenever you feel the Call, and especially every Sunday at noon local time, or at any other time of day that suits you best.

If you'd like to find out where in the world the healing energy of Love can be most helpful, you can review the information compiled at this LINK summarizing the following three topics:

- The latest in the negotiations to end the war between Ukraine and Russia
- Recent tensions between India and Pakistan and the need to calm things down
- The need to end the standoff between Israel and Hamas

As always when our attention is focused on the circumstances and actors of the great theater set up to test the mettle of embodied souls and offer them the opportunity to compensate for actions taken in previous lifetimes and to gain new insights into what the soul comes to learn on the physical plane, it's wise not to give in to the temptation to get carried away by judgments based on the limited and biased perceptions and opinions of our human personage.

The infinite force of Source's Love towards each of Her countless expressions in the manifest universe is the only one that should guide us in our collective service for Peace, Unity and Global Renewal, constanly growing all over the world.

As a complement, here's an inspiring poem proposed by one of the French subscribers to the Earth Rainbow Network, the Tunisian writer Sonia Cheniti, who published it on July 12, 2010.

PEACE WILL COME

If you believe that a smile is stronger than a gun;
If you believe in the power of an offered hand;
If you believe that what brings people together is more important than what divides them;
If you believe that being different is an asset, not a danger;
If you know how to look at others with a touch of love;
If you know how to prefer hope to suspicion;
If you feel it's up to you to take the first step, rather than the other person;

If a child's gaze still manages to disarm your heart;
If you can rejoice in your neighbor's joy;
If the injustice that strikes others revolts you as much as the injustice you suffer;
If for you the stranger is a brother offered to you;
If you know how to give a little of your time out of love;
If you know how to accept that someone else does you a favor;
If you share your bread and know how to add a piece of your heart to it;
If you believe that forgiveness goes further than revenge;
If you can sing the happiness of others and dance to their joy;
If you can listen to the unhappy person who's wasting your time and keep smiling;
If you can accept criticism and make the most of it, without defending yourself;
If you know how to welcome and adopt an opinion different from your own;
If you refuse to beat your breast on other people's chest;
If for you, the other is first and foremost a brother;
If you see anger as weakness, not strength;
If you'd rather be wronged than harm someone else;
If you refuse to let others deal with the consequences of your actions;
If you side with the poor and the oppressed, but don't see yourself as a hero;
If you believe that love is the only persuasive force;
If you believe that peace is possible...

THEN PEACE WILL COME.
