

What will 2024 bring to us ?

As the world hurtles ahead at breakneck speed towards an ominously uncertain future, what could we expect for 2024?

Globally, things are not looking good. Sadly. Where to begin with? Are we headed for extinction with the failure of power brokers in Dubai to face down the daunting prospect of runaway global warming and its attendant woes of catastrophic collapse of our sole life support system, global famine, mass death in the decades to come and a bleak future for the survivors? A perfect storm seems in the offing.

While the folly of war devours the last shreds of human decency, and as the minions of the Deep State plot to cook up more freedom-eroding scams to push back the global awakening of souls to our sacred sovereignty and power to Be all That We Are, the AI arms race seems on track to produce the worst possible outcome for its sorcerer's apprentice franken-creators and us all in one fell singularity swoop.

Meanwhile, the Pentagon and the military-intelligence industrial vortex have managed to water down and defang the U.S. law that some viewed as the lever that was to pry open the Pandora's box of all the "need not to know" deepest UFO-related secrets hidden for the past 80 years in a global network of deep underground bases and galaxy spanning space fleets built with trillions of black budget money siphoned off from taxpayers and illicit drug and human trafficking trade worldwide.

The co-opted legacy media, fully subservient to the fake, psycho-manipulative narrative of the filthy rich elite, satanic worshippers and uber-nazi schemers, continues to spin their toxic, disempowering tales to try maintaining the sheeple cowed into golden calf worshipping, nothing-to-see-here-keep-walking style.

Anyone who seriously believes the next election will not bring more of the same lives in La La Land. Democracy is not broken. It never worked for us in the first place. It is a sham designed to create an illusion of power in the duped minds while the corporate puppet masters continue pulling the strings of the economic, regulatory and political powers that were always out of reach for the ordinary mortals.

So what should we expect for 2024? It depends on what you'd like to have. Do you wish to take over the reins of power from the blood-dripping hands of the elite few and make this world a better place, or do you prefer to abdicate your power to steer the wheel of destiny and be completely taken over by the Mafiosi disguised as respectable businessmen and politicians? It's up to you, really.

If you choose the former, be sure not to use the playbook of the dualistic mindset lest you wish to simply create anarchy and fall in the same trap that gave us this mess. You don't create a new reality through repeating the same well-worn mistakes. You need a higher, holistic soul-integrated consciousness. And you need to let go of your ego. That's it baby. Time to be a grown soul.

To be or not to be. To bliss or not to bliss. To rise ever higher, or to fall ever lower.

How do we do that to Be, to Bliss, to Rise ever higher? Hey! It's not for me or for anyone to tell. We have had our fill of the gurus and saviors, don't you think. We all are the ones we have been waiting for. Got it?

If you have questions, look within for the answers. Start believing in your soul. It is One with Source, has always been, forever will. Trust nothing else but your deepest feelings. And you'll know. The way ahead towards a bright Now will shine before your very conscience. You have all the mojo within to pull a miracle from your soul's hat. Now just do/Be It.

What you just read sets the stage for the upcoming Solstice meditation, this Friday, December 22 (Thursday, December 21 in some countries). I'll send you the usual detailed instructions within the next 48 hours, but you can already check HERE at what exact moment you'll need to start the mp3 recording if you wish to synchronize your 30 minute meditation with every other participating soul around the world, and if you'd like to play this guided meditation which we will be collectively using one last time.

In the meantime, I'd like to offer you some material you may enjoy reading or watching before and/or after the global meditation.

The Immortal Child (93 pages)

This is the pdf copy of a revamped version of a book I first published in 1988. Here is what is featured on the back cover..

Long, long ago, when Light first crystallized into Life, we began the most prodigious adventure of all: Evolution!

This adventure is still unfolding today and humanity is about to discover that it is just one more stage – but a crucial one – in the great endless epic of the evolution of Life.

The time has come for us to reconnect with the forces that have been at work since the dawn of time, relentlessly and patiently, to guide us on the right path to the fulfillment our sublime destiny.

It's up to us now to take control of our destiny and show the mastery necessary to complete what Life has begun long ago, so long ago.

The Immortal Child is about to be born, and needs each and every one of us to succeed.

"A wonderful book. A riveting and fast moving account of perhaps the greatest adventure story of all time. I found it enjoyable, clearly written and informative."

- Ken Carey - Author of The Starseed Transmissions

"Exciting, imaginative reading. A great story, for it is our story. As this book makes abundantly clear, the Earth and ourselves are of one mind, one spirit, one purpose – and the time to realize this is now."

- José Argüelles - Instigator of Harmonic Convergence and author.

Also as a complement to Seeking The Truth which was provided as background for the December 3 Invitation to a globally synchronized meditation, you may appreciate reading this STATUS REPORT (1004 words).

If Only They Knew (3728 words)

Never before in this round in the evolution of human civilization have criminal agencies of governance around the world banded together so forcefully on a war plan to mass murder the majority of mankind.

Declaration Of Spiritual Independence (1965 words)

(...) Under God's highest law, I declare that I am a Divine Human Being. The father that lives in Jeshua Ben Joseph lives in me and every human being. As Jeshua said openly - "The kingdom of heaven is within you".

I am not a slave to the ancient God's. My Creator is the Mother Father principle of all Universes, the Void from which all life sprang, Mysterious One. This platform of life, has created even the fallen angels, every advanced being in other civilizations and other star systems - and has created every single spirit and soul of every human being on earth. I am not my embodiment, but I am my holy spirit. I have lived before and I will live again. I declare, under God's highest law, that from hereon out the full Karmic law comes into effect for all who contribute to the atrocities against the divine human species.

I DO NOT CONSENT to the genocidal destruction of the human species. I declare my rebellion and disagreement on every level of creation, in every dimension and universe and every potential timeline.

Memories of the Afterlife: What We Can Learn from Our Life Between Lives (1222 words) About a book by the late Michael Newton

And finally, as a complement to Full Disclosure Ahead (8923 words) which I recommended to your attention last February 17...
